

Our Mission: Be Disciples. Make Missionary Disciples!

“Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.”

PSALM 104:30

Gifts of the Holy Spirit by Fr. Seth

Imagine that you are a little child on Christmas morning. You have been eagerly awaiting the opportunity to discover what gifts are waiting for you under the Christmas tree. You pick out the beautifully wrapped gift with your name on it and tear into the wrapping paper. It is the gift you have been dreaming about for months. Shortly after unwrapping the presents, your parents inform you that you have to go – to Mass or to another family gathering – and playing with the gift must wait. As you are away, your mind is consumed with thoughts of playing with this newly received gift. You want to use it, to play with it, to enjoy being in possession of that gift.

Imagine if we as Christians were as excited as that to receive gifts from God and to put them to use. We often say that God has given us many gifts. But I think we take that for granted, or sometimes even shrug it off as a cliché or trite saying that is supposed to make us feel better. Sometimes in prayer we might express gratitude for God’s goodness in our lives: a roof over our head, food on the table, friends or family that love us, etc. But how often do we think about the spiritual gifts God gives us for the purpose of discipleship and evangelization? Do I believe that God has given me gifts to build up His kingdom? What gifts might those be? Can I even name any spiritual gifts? It is quite hard to put gifts to use if I cannot even recognize them; that is the first step of stewardship, to recognize the gifts that God has given us.

Pentecost is an opportunity for us to recognize the gifts God gives us, specifically the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Do we know these seven gifts? If we were handed a pop quiz, how many could we name? Pentecost is an opportunity for us to get excited about these seven gifts that God so desperately wants to give us: wisdom, knowledge, understanding, counsel, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord. These are the gifts that will enrich our lives and to help us keep the flame of love burning in our hearts. Imagine if all of us were striving to possess the wisdom of King Solomon, the fortitude of Fr. Kapaun, the piety of St. Dominic Savio, the respect and fear of the Lord of John the Beloved, the knowledge of the prophet Daniel, the counsel of St. John Vianney or St. Padre Pio, the understanding of Aquinas or Augustine. Why do we not beg for these gifts on a daily basis?

As we celebrate this great feast of Pentecost, I encourage all of us to think of a gift that we would like to receive from the Lord. Maybe it is fortitude in the face of suffering. Perhaps wisdom or counsel as you strive to live out the vocation of parenthood that God has called you to. Maybe God is calling you to an increase of piety by making regular visits to the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel on your way to or from work or school. Whatever that gift may be, ask God for that gift and pick a saint who embodied that gift by their way of life. Model your life after that saint, emulate them, incorporate their practices of holiness into your daily life. If you want to take your faith life to the next level, ask the Holy Spirit for His gifts and put them into practice with the help of the saints.

God Poured Out for Us by Carey Boyzuck

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.

–Acts 2:1-3

Pentecost is the birthday of the Church! "For it was from the side of Christ as he slept the sleep of death upon the cross that there came forth the 'wondrous sacrament of the whole Church.' As Eve was formed from the sleeping Adam's side, so the Church was born from the pierced heart of Christ hanging dead on the cross" (CCC 766). The Church was born of Christ's own blood and water, just as a baby is born of blood and water in childbirth (see John 19:34). Jesus breathing the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles (John 20:22) is like God breathing His Spirit into Adam: "then the Lord God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being" (Genesis 2:7). When the Holy Spirit was poured upon the Church, she became full of God's life!

The Catechism teaches: "On the day of Pentecost when the seven weeks of Easter had come to an end, Christ's Passover is fulfilled in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, manifested, given, and communicated as a divine person: of his fullness, Christ, the Lord, pours out the Spirit in abundance" (CCC 731). God continues to pour the same Holy Spirit upon us—the members of the Church—that He poured on the Apostles on Pentecost. This means that we are also full of God's breath, life, and grace.

We cannot see or touch the Holy Spirit, but we place our trust in what is unseen, yet able to be felt in our hearts: "...hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us" (Romans 5:5). Have you ever felt the Holy Spirit in your heart? It is possible to feel the warmth and love of God if you are open and have faith that He truly dwells within you when you are in a state of grace. Especially pay attention to how your heart feels when you have just received the Holy Eucharist in Communion, or when you are praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Don't try to force anything, just be still and open to feeling God's love pouring into your heart.

Come Holy Spirit! Send down the fire of Your love into my heart. I believe that You are with me, dwelling within me and in my fellow Christians' hearts. Never let me be separated from You.

Looking for a Summer Study? Try Spiritual Saturdays!

Summer is almost here, and it's a great time for starting a new study! Join Fr. Jirak's Spiritual Saturdays with St. Catherine of Sienna. Father is leading the group through the Catholic classic, The Dialogue. It's no problem if you want to join in the middle of the series! Father takes each section as a standalone class. There are a few books available upon request at the class. Please join us on the following Saturdays in June from 8:30-9:15am in the Marian room: June 1, 8, 22, 29.

Seasoned Servants, May 22

If you are 55 and older, join us on Wednesday, May 22 from 2-4pm in the Fr. Kapaun room. Come and enjoy refreshments, fellowship, prayer, and time with some new Magdalen friends!

Pray for our Seminarians and Upcoming Ordinations

Please pray for the men from our diocese who will be ordained to the transitional Diaconate on May 23: Nicholas Samsel, Grant Huslig, and Joseph Mick. Deacon Jesus Banuelos, Deacon Matthew Cooke, Deacon Caleb Kuesterteffen, and Deacon Miles Swigart will be ordained to the sacred Priesthood on May 25. Please also keep all of our seminarians in your prayers as they continue their studies. Thank you for supporting them as they prepare to devote their lives to the service of Christ and His Church.

Spiritual Life Center Series: Beauty

Beauty is perhaps one of the most neglected aspects of our encounter with the Lord. Over two sessions, we will attempt to understand beauty so as to cultivate an awareness of it, and a freedom to enjoy it when we stumble upon it in the horizon of our life in all of its various facets. Fr. Luke Downing will present the two-part series "Beauty" at the Spiritual Life Center on May 30 and June 6, 7-8:30pm. Cost is $20 in-house or livestreamed or $50 in-person with dinner included each night. Go to www.slcwichita.org/slc-events/series to register.

National Eucharistic Pilgrimage is Coming to Benedictine!

Benedictine College in Atchison, Kansas would like to extend a special invitation to you to participate in the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage at their campus. This pilgrimage is a nationwide Eucharistic procession beginning in California and culminating in Indianapolis for the National Eucharistic Congress in July. Benedictine College will serve as a stop along the western route. All are invited to join them on campus June 25-26 to celebrate and adore our Eucharistic Lord. Find more information and register at www.benedictine.edu/pilgrimage. Learn more here: eucharisticpilgrimage.org.

Mom's Day Out is Forming Teams for Next Session

Our Magdalen Mom's Day Out (MDO) is wrapping up a great year! They're taking a break during the summer, but they're already taking names to join the group when they start up again in August. MDO provides stay-at-home moms childcare once a week, allowing moms free time to run errands, pray, or meet up with friends. This is a cooperative Mom's Day Out made up of teams who work one Wednesday each month and then have the other three Wednesdays off. This is a great way to meet other moms in the parish as well as give yourself a much-needed break. The group meets from 9am-1pm and serves ages 6 months through the summer prior to entering Kindergarten. If you're interested in joining next year, contact Chelsea Mellinger at jcmellinger629@gmail.com.

Baby Bottles for Life Campaign

Our Magdalen Respect Life Group is sponsoring their annual Baby Bottles for Life campaign. It is a benefit for pro-life education and pregnancy resource centers. Please pick up a baby bottle to fill with change to donate. You can bring them back with your donations on Father's Day and put them in the baby doll play pen or the church office. Last year we raised $5,644.09 for this important cause!

Save the Date for a Family Movie Night May 30!

Bring the whole family to enjoy the 2023 movie Migration! Join us in the Parish Hall on Thursday, May 30 from 7:30pm to 9:30pm for a free, family-friendly movie, sponsored by ACTS! They will provide popcorn, pop, and dessert; please bring blankets or chairs to sit on. Doors open at 7:15. Watch for RSVP details soon!

Catholic Exchange Student Seeks Host Family

Would you be interested in hosting a Catholic exchange student? Monika, who is 16 and from Poland, is a Catholic girl who needs a Catholic host family for next school year. Monika likes listening to popular music (she's a Swiftie!), reading books, baking, and playing sports. She volunteers at a local charity and at the local animal shelter. She loves animals, especially cats. She has a close relationship with her eight-year-old sister. Monika is an "A" student at school and speaks English fluently. Can you help by becoming her host family or referring someone who might be interested? For more information, call Wilma Fast at 316-681-1236 or email wilmafast@yahoo.com.

Vocati Summer Schedule

Our high school youth group, Vocati, meets monthly during the summer. Their next meeting is Wednesday, June 12. Also mark your calendars for July 10 & August 7. All high school teens from any area schools are welcome and encouraged to bring friends! They will have food, small groups, and games each night from 6:30-8:00pm in the Fr. Kapaun Room!

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray. O God, who have taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that in the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in his consolation.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
